LONDON, April 4.

The most remarkable Piece brought over by the Dutch Mail is the following Speech made by the Pope in a Consistory at Rome the 28th ult. concerning the Rights of the Holy See to the Dutchies of Parma and Placentia.

Venerable Brethren,

WE are very sorry to hear that the Ministers of our most dear Daughter in Jesus Christ, Maria-Theresa, the illustrious Queen of Hungary and Bohemia, after having drawn up and given out a Form of the Homage, with the Manner of taking it, did on the 13th of February last assemble the Deputies of the Dutchess of Parma and Placentia, in the Hall of the Ducal Palace of Placentia, together with the other Vassals of those Dutchies, Feudatories of the Holy See, and did demand of them, in the Presence of the Nobility and Magistrates, that they should take the Oath of Fidelity to that Princess in Quality of the Dutchess of Parma and Placentia.

This is the first publick Attempt made upon the incontestible Rights since we have been charg'd with the important Trusts of the Apostolicate: And so gross is this Attempt, that we could not think ourselves excusable if we did not impart it to your Fraternities.

Being accountable for the Patrimony of the Church, for its sacred Possessions, to Jesus Christ the Head Pastor, we follow the Example set us by our Predecessors of Glorious Memory, Clement XII. Innocent XIII and Benedict XIII since the pretended Imperial Investiture. We also regulate ourselves by the Conduct which was observ'd by the late Pope Clement XII. of Blessed Memory, both after the Death of the Most Noble Anthony Farnese, and after the Entrance of the Imperial Troops into those Dominions. The Steps of those great Pontiffs were so glorious, that we cannot but think it our Duty to act according to their Principles. Therefore we assure your Fraternities, that we publickly and solemnly disapprove every thing that has been illegally done on this Occasion. As to the Oath, as unjustly impos'd as 'tis unjustly taken, we do by Virtue of Apostolick Authority declare it absolutely null and void.

You will share with us, Venerable Brethren, in the Anxiety which this Affair gives us. Unite your Prayers with ours. Let us lift up our Hands to Heaven. Let us pray to the Almighty, that he will please to look down from his Throne upon his Heritage, and defend it. Mean Time we will not cease to discharge the Duties of our Apostolical Care. We will take Care to send the proper Orders and Instructions to our Nuncios at Foreign Courts, and will in short take all the other necessary Measures, in hopes that the Father of Mercies will bless our Care, and Counsel, with a happy issue.

Extract of a Letter from Brussels, March 30.

BY Letters from Lisle we hear, that the Frontier Towns of France swarm with Troops, and that the Duke de Boufflers, accompany'd by M. de Granville, Intendant, goes to Dunkirk from time to time to see the Works carrying on there. According to some Advices from Paris, it is actually reported that the Infant Don Philip is expected there with the Princess his Consort, and that Apartments in the Lovure are preparing for their Reception.

Vienna, April 29. The following is the Purport of the Letters which the Queen of Hungary receiv'd some time ago from the King of Great Britain and the States General, in answer to that wrote to them by her Majesty, to acquaint them with the Affair of Silesia, viz. "That his Britannick Majesty, in Concert with the States General, have resolv'd to cause the King of Prussia, if possible, to desist from his Enterprize, by the Use of good Offices; and in the mean time they assure the Queeen, that in case the King of Prussia continues to persist in his Design, his Britannick Majesty and their High Mightinesses will faithfully and religiously fulfil the Treaties with oblige them to succour her."

Breslau, May 6. N.S. The Citadel of Breig was reduced to Ruins on the 1st, and the Ramparts of the Fortress levelled to the Ground; on the 2d Breaches were eight Ells wide, and the Jesuits Church took Fire, whereupon the Canonading ceased, to give the Inhabitants an Opportunity of putting out the Flames; on the 3d, by the Favour of a continual Fire, the Prussians advanced as far as under the Cannon of the Place, and the Besieged beat the Chamade the 4th in the Afternoon.

Whitehall, May 18. Yesterday arrived Capt. Laws, Commander of the Spence Sloop, with Letters to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, one of his Majesty's principal Secretaries of State, from Vice-Admiral Vernon, and Brigadier Wentworth, Commander in Chief of his Majesty's Forces in the West-Indies, dated from the Harbour of Carthagena, the 1st of April, which gives a particular Account of the taking of the several Forts, &c. before that Place.

London, May 5. On Saturday, at the Breaking up of the Parliament, the Right Honourable the Speaker made an excellent Speech, wherein, among other Things, he touched on the Point of Standing Armies, and the dangerous Consequences to be fear'd from thence; which he so perspicuously laid down, that he had the universal Applause of that Grand Audience.

A Lieutenant-Colonel of one of the Regiments of Marines on board the Fleet in the West-Indies, concludes a Letter, sent to a Friend here, with these Words, viz. Some of the Regiments, particularly the old ones, suffer'd by the Disorders incident to the Europeans in this Part of the World; ours was very lucky, having lost but 8 Men; and now, I thank God, both our Fleet and Army are as well as can be expected. The 3000 Men rais'd in New-England, &c. are very clever Fellows.

May 23. They write from Portsmouth, that they have receiv'd as a Present from Admiral Vernon, the Flag which he had taken from on Board Don Blas's Ship, and had placed it on the Top of the Tower there; and great Rejoicings were made, and loyal Healths drank at the Receiving the welcome News of that Admiral's Success.

On

On Monday laſt, the Day of rejoicing for the glorious Succeſs at Carthagena, two young Lions were whelp'd at the Tower, and are nam'd VERNON and OGLE; and on Wedneſday a young Lioneſs was whelp'd there alſo.

On Tueſday Night laſt the two Spaniſh Captains that were taken by Admiral Vernon on board Don Blas's Ship at Carthagena, and brought here by Capt. Laws of the Spence Sloop, arriv'd at the Black Bear in Piccadilly from Portſmouth. And on Wedneſday Night they were carried to Mr. Hutchings's, one of his Majeſty's Meſſengers, in Dartmouth-ſtreet, Weſtminſter, where they are to remain in his Cuſtody till further Orders.

Charles-Town, South-Carolina, June 4.

Laſt Saturday arrived here the Sloop Sally, Darlow Marther, Maſter from Madera, with 100 Pipes of Wine; who was taken on Tueſday the 26th paſt, by a ſmall Spaniſh Privateer Sloop belonging to St Auguſtine, who put Nine of their Men on Board and ſent her for that Place; but in her Way was met with and retaken by his Majeſty's Ship the Phœnix, (Capt. Fanſhaw,) on the 28th. By a Gentleman who came Paſſenger in the ſaid Sloop, we are informed, that the Day before ſhe was taken, he heard ſeveral Broad-ſides fired, which he ſuppos'd to be between the Privateer and a large Ship that ſhe had taken, bound from London for this Place, (commanded by one Ford.) He alſo informs us, that the ſame Day Capt. Ford was taken, they took a loaded Snow, outward bound from this Place.

Capt. Dunn who is juſt arrived here from Winyaw, ſays that laſt Saturday the Look-Out on Craven's Iſland informed him, that the Day before, two Schooners ſtanding in for the Bar, a large Snow from Sea ſtood in alſo, and being a fine Sailor, got between the Land and the Schooners, and fir'd many Shot at them, upon which they ſtruck and were carried off. This Snow has been ſeen in Chaſe of ſeveral other Veſſels, ſo that we need not doubt but ſhe has pick'd up ſome of them.

Williamsburgh, in Virginia, July 10.

This Week arrived in York River, the Snow Seaflower, Capt. Edwards, (the former Capt. being dead) from Guinea, with 159 Slaves, conſign'd to Col. Braxton, and Son. They met with a Spaniſh Snow, about 90 Tons, in Lat. 27, 17, No. Long. 67, 7 W. who hoiſted a French Jack, and fired ſeveral Shot at them, and threaten'd, if they did not immediately ſtrike, they would give them no Quarter; the Captain gave them the like Anſwer; and tho' he had but 6 Sailors and a Boy, and none of them would ſtand by him but the Boatſwain, yet he was reſolv'd to make the beſt Defence he could, and accordingly fir'd a Broadſide into the Privateer (which burſt one of his own Guns,) he got up the Cheſt of ſmall Arms, put Firelocks, Piſtols, and Cutlaſſes into the Hands of ſome of the Negroes, whom he made to underſtand him, who fought ſo deſperately in their Way, ſhooting, ſlaſhing, and throwing Fire into the Privateer, when they attempted twice to board him, that by their Bravery they ſav'd the Ship and Cargo, and oblig'd the Privateer (who acknowledg'd he was fitted out from Hiſpaniola) to ſheer off without doing any conſiderable Damage.

July 17. We hear from Maryland, that his Excellency SAMUEL OGLE, Eſq; Governor of that Province, was married on Monday the 6th Inſtant, to Miſs Anne Taſker, Daughter of the Honourable Benjamin Taſker, Eſq; Preſident of his Lordſhip's Honourable Council of that Province; a very agreeable, well accompliſh'd young Lady with a good Fortune.

We have Advice from Kiquotan, That Sir Yelverton Peyton, Bart. in the Hector Man of War, return'd into that Road, from his Cruiſe, the 9th Inſtant, having met with nothing to annoy the Coaſt. As he was ſtanding in near the Capes, on the 29th of June, he met with 6 Sail of outward-bound Merchant-men, which he convoyed 70 Leagues to Sea, on their Paſſage to Great Britain; and then return'd again. We hear he is filling his Water, with all poſſible Expedition, in order to proceed to Sea again; which will be compleated in 6 or 7 Days.

We have Advice from Norfolk, That the Ship Cæſar, Capt. Clarke, bound from York-River to North-Carolina, to take in a Loading there, was taken about 5 Days ſince, about 15 or 20 Leagues to the Southward of Cape-Henry. The ſame Day they ſail'd out of the Capes, towards the Evening, they ſaw 3 Sail; and ſoon after a Boat with a great Number of Men was ſent from one of them, who came up to their Ship, and demanded of them to ſtrike to the King of Spain, or they ſhou'd have no Quarter; which being refus'd, they fir'd upon the Ship briſkly with ſmall Arms, which was return'd from the Ship, and defended themſelves from being boarded, 'till their Ammunition was near expended; and Night coming on, the Boat left them, and return'd to their Ship. The next morning early, two of the three Spaniſh Veſſels came up with the Cæſar, one a-head, the other a-ſtern; and Capt. Clarke being unable to defend his Ship from them, quitted her, and went aſhore with all his People, and went to Norfolk, where they were when this Advice came away.

Our two Privateers ſail'd on Tueſday laſt, and the Hector will ſail on Sunday; there is great Reaſon to hope the Coaſt will be ſcour'd of theſe Peſts of Trade; tho' ſome are of Opinion the Spaniards are ſo ſtrong, and are grown ſo inſolent upon their Succeſs, that they will make a powerful Oppoſition.

BOSTON, July 20.

Saturday laſt Capt. Eagleſton arrived here from the Bay of Honduras, by whom we hear, that on the 31ſt of May laſt, on his Way home, he touched at the Iſland of Aretan, to Water, where he found a Sloop at Anchor, but no Perſon on board. She was loaded with Logwood, and was known to be an Engliſh Veſſel; and ſeeing two Men on ſhore, Capt. Eagleſton ſent his Boat and fetch'd them on board, where they gave the following Account, viz. That they belong'd to the Sloop at Anchor, which was lately commanded by Capt. John Wiſe, but was taken ſome time ſince in the Bay, with ſeveral other Veſſels: That the Privateer that took them, carried away the Maſter and all the other Men, and put four Spaniards on board to carry the Sloop to Campeche; but as ſoon as the Privateer was out of Sight, they fell upon their Enemies, diſpatch'd two, and ſecured the others, and then brought the Veſſel into that Place; but upon Capt. Eagleſton's appearing in Sight, they took him for the Spaniſh Privateer, and knowing how it would fare with them if they fell again into the Spaniard's Hands, they (for Quietneſs ſake) bid their two Priſoners, and then went aſhore in their Boat. Capt. Eagleſton having ſeveral Paſſengers on board, put in one Capt. Davis Maſter of the Sloop, with 3 or 4 other Hands to bring her home, having ſpar'd them Proviſions, &c. proper for the Voyage. They kept Company ſeveral Days, but parted off the Weſt End of Cuba, and may be daily expected here.

Province-Town, July 14. On the 4th of this Month, one of the Town diſcover'd a conſiderable Quantity of Ice on the North Side of a Swamp in this Place, who broke off a Piece, and carried it ſeveral Miles undiſſolved to the Tavern-keeper, who for his Pains, treated him with a Bowl of Punch made of the ſame.

NEW-YORK, July 27.

By Capt. Sturup who arrived here on Weaneſday laſt, in 5 Days from North Carolina, we are informed, that within ſix Days before his Departure from thence, two Spaniſh Privateers had taken five Sloops and a Ship, and ſent them away for St. Auguſtine.

By Capt. Burchal, in 25 Days from Jamaica, we are informed that the Fleet was gone from Jamaica; it is confidently reported, that the Deſign was a Deſcent upon Cuba. The Falmouth Man of War is daily expected here, and ſome other Veſſels, under her Convoy.

John Hewſon's Daughter is again reprieved until next Wedneſday come Week. We ſeem to be eaſier as to the Thoughts of the Negroes; the Whites are not brought to Tryal yet; the Military Watch is continued; and our new Fortifications are very forward.
